

Duration	40 minutes	Grade	V,VI, VII,VIII
HOW DIVORCE MAKE YOU FEEL?
Aims and expected results	The students: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Learn to express own feelings without words</li> <li>- Learn different drawing techniques</li> </ul>
Materials	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- paper, pencils, crayons</li> </ul>
Description of the activity:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- many children are not able to express their emotions in words, however, drawing is another way of describing own feelings. It is really easier way for children to show how they feel inside.</li> <li>- tell students some examples of drawing methods and it is up to students to choose the drawing technique which help them to talk about their emotions</li> <li>- Give them enough time to draw everything what they feel, what divorce has changed in their life, encourage them to be as open as it is possible</li> <li>- After drawing activity ask each child specific questions and encourage them to explain what they have drawn and why:                         <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ How did you feel while you were expressing own feelings though drawing?</li> <li>➤ Why did you decide to use this drawing technique?</li> <li>➤ Was it better for you to talk about personal problems via drawing?</li> <li>➤ Which colour remembers you nicer situations?</li> <li>➤ Do you think that drawing can be a good way of expressing feelings?</li> <li>➤ Did you take something useful from this lesson?</li> </ul> </li> <li>- Keep 10 minutes for presenting children´s pictures before the whole group, they can ask questions each other</li> </ul>
Notes:			