

lawake

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme

Presentation of our organisation

Partner meeting in Vilnius
June 21-24, 2012

FRAMEWORK

- ✓ Voluntary Service Centre - Private - not for profit
- ✓ Regulated by national law for Volunteering (L. n. 266 dated 11th August 1991)
- ✓ Instituted in 1997 by 15 Voluntary Organisations
- ✓ Funded by Bank Foundations
- ✓ Actually, leaded by 90 Voluntary Organisations

VISION

We imagine a future in which the distinctive features of volunteering freedom and self-giving, reciprocity and trust, passion and spirit of initiative, responsibility and care for each other

will be a guide for individual and collective challenge

MISSION

Our Mission is to qualify and support
Voluntary Organisations
in order to enable volunteers to seize opportunities
and take individual paths to development

ACTIVITIES AND EXPERTISE

In 2011 we reached 723 Voluntary Organisations in the Province of Turin providing 12.245 free of charge services in several areas:

- ✓ Technical and logistical support (spaces, vehicles, equipments)
- ✓ Promotion and communication (events, advertising materials, press office, web sites and newsletter)

ACTIVITIES AND EXPERTISE

- ✓ Consulting and training (law, accountability, planning, ICT...)
- ✓ Our own calls for proposal of social projects (civil defence, environment, social caring, culture)
- ✓ Information and assistance on external funding calls (local and national)

OUR COMMITMENT IN FAVOR OF 50+ PEOPLE: ORIENTATION DESK

Offered Services:

- ✓ Information about volunteering opportunities
- ✓ Personalized orientation service

Results:

1086 people reached:

- ✓ 686 have expressed interest in voluntary (filling an application form)
- ✓ 474 have been met for an individual interview
- ✓ 334 found an association

32% of them belongs to 50+ class of people

OUR COMMITMENT IN FAVOR OF 50+ PEOPLE: THE TRAINING

Voluntary activities constitute a rich learning experience, enable the development of social skills and competences and contribute to solidarity (...). Voluntary activities have the potential to contribute to the well-being of individuals and the harmonious development of European societies.

(Council Decision of 27 November 2009 on the 2011-European Year of Voluntary Activities Promoting Active Citizenship)

To qualify our volunteers, we offer training courses in several fields:

- ✓ ICT
- ✓ Communication and Fund raising
- ✓ Fiscal and Amministrative

OUR COMMITMENT IN FAVOR OF 50+ PEOPLE: THE TRAINING

During last year, 1057 volunteers have attended one of our 39 training courses (more than 500 hours of lesson)

65% of our learners belong to 50+ people class

Thanks to AWAKE project, in 2012 we have organized 2 new training courses: English (24 learners) and Skype (15 learners) both led by volunteers

Lifelong Learning Programme

Education and Culture DG

Thank you for your attention!

www.vssp.it

www.vssplive.it

www.facebook.com/vssp.volontariato